Topics: Miscellaneous

Summary: Establishes until June 30, 2026, the Local Government Immigrant Integration Initiative and would, upon appropriation, require GO-Biz to administer competitive grants to local governments to develop or expand local immigrant integration initiatives. Specifies that grants may be used for, among other things, funding immigrant integration focused positions and services. Requires, upon appropriation, GO-Biz to administer competitive grants to eligible service providers, as specified, to develop export training programs and curriculum aimed at underserved business owners, including immigrant entrepreneurs. Require GO-Biz to complete an annual report, as described, and would specify that persons who are not lawfully present in the United States may participate in and benefit from services provided by these grant programs.
